

BITTEN BY A MAD DOG.

Mrs. P. W. Grinstead Being Treated at Pasteur Institute.

Mrs. Grinstead, wife of P. W. Grinstead, a former superintendent of the Fremont schools, was bitten on the hand by a pet dog last Wednesday at her country home in Kentucky and was hurried to Chicago for treatment at the Pasteur Institute.

Mr. Grinstead was in Cleveland at the time and hurriedly left for Chicago, reaching there in time to meet his wife. Chicago physicians say that while the dog had a violent case of the rabies, they have begun treatment in time to effect a cure.

The Grinsteads have a fine country home in Kentucky, seven miles from Cincinnati. Mr. Grinstead is now assistant general manager of the Cincinnati office of the American Book Co.—Fremont Tribune.

The parties mentioned above are well known in this city, P. W. Grinstead being the oldest son of R. E. Grinstead of Salem. They have many friends here who sincerely hope a complete cure will be effected.

The Old Fool Hen.

I like to watch the old fool hen that's tied beside my door; she has of little chickens ten, and thinks she has three score; of all the blamed important things that ever fussed around, she is the worst; all day she claws the dirt around. She thinks she has the only chicks, and so she clucks and humps; all other chickens are gold bricks, all other hens are chumps. She sees a toe in every friend, and drives the friend away; her feathers always are on end, she's mad the live-long day. And so I watch the old fool hen; and still she seems to me, like many chuckle-headed men, whom every day I see. This life to them's not worth a cuss, no pleasure it affords, because they fume and fret and fuss about their little hoards. With bile and envy in their souls, pursue their narrow plan, and ever guard their dirty rolls and hate their fellow man.—Walt Mason.

Big Day in St. Joe.

The order of the Knights of Robidoux are arranging for a big day in St. Joe, on Tuesday, July 28, with no expense to the visitors except car fare. It is managed in this way: when you purchase your round trip ticket your agent will present you with a coupon book entitling you to free admission to all attractions enumerated, such as street car rides, base ball games, prize band concerts, all amusements at Lake Contrary, etc., all this with the compliments of the Knights of Robidoux. It will be a great day for St. Joe, and will bring them many visitors, and will provide one of the best possible advertisements for the city.

Kansas City Market Letter.

Kansas City stock Yards, July 13, 1908. The first big run of the grass cattle season this year arrived today 20,000 head. The supply was light last week, but after Tuesday some weakness developed on the grades below the best and the week closed with only a small net advance. Sellers were disappointed at the moderate showing made, in view of the small supply, but buyers insist that sales of meat are made with difficulty, and their independent attitude confirms their position.

The good run today in connection with a run of 25,000 in Chicago and a bread of 15 to 25 cts there, resulted in declines of 10 to 25 cents here. The hot weather is against consumption of meats and while the market has made some phenomenal recoveries this summer from apparently permanent breaks, it was due to circumstances which reduced supplies temporarily. Good run will likely mean a lower range of prices. Cows bring $2.50 to $4.25, heifers $3.25 to $4.75 although fancy fed heifers from Nebraska sold at $6.75 to $7.00 here last week, and the same quality would bring almost as much today. Calves are also lower today, at $3.50 to $4.00 feeders $4.00 to $4.80, a few partly finished steers upward into the fat cattle price range.

Small supplies of hogs together with indications of a short number in the country to be marketed soon, keeps the hog market on the advance although buyers secured some declines one or two days last week. Heavy hogs are scarce but they are also in least demand today and will likely soon drop into the rear of the price column. Average weight is running about 195 pounds.

Sheep and lambs are making some advance lately, including a gain of 10 to 15 cents today. The run is moderate, it being between seasons in the range country. Run today is 5,000 head, spring lambs at $6.50 to $6.75 for best, best wethers $4.60 ewes $4.35. Good feeding wethers and ewes bring $3.00 to $3.85, lambs $4.60 to $5.25.

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague," that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Kerr's pharmacy.

Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swollen, painful, bleeding or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by all dealers.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.

Jesse Weaver, a Long Time Resident of This County, Gone.

Jesse Weaver died at the home of a son, Norman Weaver, about six miles southeast of Stella at nine o'clock Tuesday evening, July 7, 1908. He had been in failing health for three or four years, suffering from lung trouble with occasional attacks of appendicitis. Mr. Weaver was born in Jefferson county, Pennsylvania, January 11, 1849. When he was a boy of twelve or fourteen the family came to Illinois and later was married to Rebecca Kroh. In 1871 they came to Nebraska buying a farm southeast of Romaine Timmerman's and where his son Charles Weaver now lives. At the same time Isaac Kroh, now of Netawaka, Kansas, Dan Kroh, W. H. Wolf and the late H. D. Weaver moved from Illinois to this section. Mr. Weaver prospered well in Nebraska, and leaves to the four children nearly a section of land beside residence property in Verdon. The daughters are Mrs. Josh Bloom, and Mrs. Jake Bloom.

The funeral was held at Verdon yesterday afternoon at two o'clock and the burial was in the Verdon cemetery beside the wife who died in March.—Stella Press.

Tell Your Wife.

If you are in any trouble or quandary, tell your wife—that is, if you have one—all about it at once. Ten to one, her intuition will solve your difficulty sooner than all your logic. The wit of woman has been praised but her instincts are far quicker and keener than her reason. Counsel with your wife or mother or sister, and be assured light will flash upon your darkness. Women are too commonly adjudged as verdant in all but purely womanish affairs. No philosophical students of the sex thus judge them. Their intuitions, or insights, are the most subtle. In counselling a man to tell his wife we would go farther, and advise him to keep none of his affairs a secret from her. Many a home has been happily saved, and many a fortune retrieved, by a man's full confidence in his "better half." Woman is far more a seer and prophet than man, if she be given a fair chance. As a general rule, wives confide the minutest of their plans and thoughts to their husbands, having no involvements to screen from them. Why not reciprocate, if but for the pleasure of meeting confidence with confidence? We are certain that no man succeeds so well in the world as he who, taking a partner for life, makes her the partner of his purposes and hopes. What is wrong of his impulse or judgment, she will check and set right with her almost universally right instincts. "Helpmeet" was no insignificant title as applied to man's companion. She is a helpmeet to him in every darkness, difficulty and sorrow of life. And what she most craves and most deserves is confidence—without which love is never free from a shadow.—Purity Advocate.

Come Up.

Valley Falls hung it onto Atchison's new professional team yesterday by the score of 7 to 1. This is a surprise to the fans, as they had begun to believe that the new team was invincible. It is well to remember, however, that it was at Valley Falls, which has a sort of a Falls City and a Rushville reputation when it comes to beating teams on the home grounds. They rarely lose.—Atchison Globe.

The Falls City team not only wins on its home grounds but on about any other ground they play on. If you don't believe it we would like to arrange a game with your "invincibles."

Rev. I. W. Williams Testifies.

Rev. I. W. Williams, Huntington, W. Va., testifies as follows: "This is to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble, and am free to say that Foley's Kidney Remedy will do all that you claim for it." Kerr's pharmacy.
